American General Life Companies Launches Refreshed Version of Term Life AG Select-a-Term<sup>SM</sup> Offers Guaranteed Level Premiums

HOUSTON, July 14, 2009 —American General Life Companies (American General) announced today that it has launched a refreshed version of AG Select-a-Term<sup>SM</sup>, issued by American General Life Insurance Company and The United States Life Insurance Company in the City of New York. This term life insurance product offers guaranteed level premiums for 17 term durations: 10-year and 15- through 30-years.

“Offering competitively-priced guaranteed level term for a broad range of durations is more important than ever in the current economy,” said Mike Murphy, vice president, marketing. “When times are tough, more consumers look to term products, and the flexibility and reach of AG Select-a-Term makes it a great solution for a wide variety of needs.”

Additional enhancements include:

- A new low band of $100,000 to $249,999 with the most competitive band now starting at face amounts of $500,000 instead of $1 million
- Expanded issue ages for many durations

- A new endorsement that permits conversions to AG ROP Select-a-Term during the first two years of coverage without evidence of insurability
- The policy is now convertible to fixed, index and variable universal life policies to the earlier of the end of the term period or attained age 70. It is convertible to American General's flagship guaranteed universal life product – ContinUL Extend Plus<sup>SM</sup> – during the first 60 months of term coverage.
